Vocabulary and Reading

The first exercise gives students the opportunity to test their prior knowledge by introducing topicrelated vocabulary.

Vocabulary is brought to life with skills activities, allowing students to personalise the language.

karşılama valkı Universal popo nowanoBath vilkommen benvenuto Bušinaušu -vindo welcome WE velkommen bine al venit accuert bienvenido 社会 Kahudopiqua Добре дошли 教法 ברוך הבא grant datang ברוך הבא Vocabulary

Countries, nationalities and languages

- 1 Work with a partner. How many countries can you name in this map of Europe?
- Complete the table of countries around the world with the names for the nationality and the main language(s).

Country	Nationality	Main language
1 Argentina
2 Austria
3 Brazil
4 Bulgaria
5 Egypt
6 Japan
7 Mexico
8 Poland
9 Russia
10 Switzerland
11 Thalland
12 Turkey

- 3 (3) 15 Listen and check your answers.
- 4a PERMINISTER Mark the main stress in each word in 2. Argentina Argentinian Spanish
- 4b (2) 14 Listen, check and repeat with the correct
- SPERME Work in a small group. Which of the countries in 2 would you like to visit and why? I'd tike to virit Brazil, because I leve wetching the Seguitian football terror

Learning a language

6 Look at these words. They are all verbs. What nouns can you make from them?

memorise • practise • revise • study • translate

atudy - atulest, atulies

Look at these words. Decide if we use do or make with each word. Can you think of other verbs we can use with the words?

English . an essay . an exam

do English, esudy English, Icam English ...

- SPANSE Interview your partner with these questions about learning English. Are your answers similar?
- 1 How do you study English outside school?
- 2 How do you revise vocabulary before an exam?
- 3 How often do you translate from and into English?
- 4 How do you feel about writing in English?
- 5 How often de you do English homework? 6 When do you take English exams?
- 7 How do you feel when you make mistakes in
- 8 Do you prefer practising speaking, writing, reading, and listening or doing grammar and vocabulary exercises? Why?

Hew do you study English-outside school?

I do my homework and I sometimes read books in English, I watch films in English, too.

Reading

Read the text. How did they create the map on page 32? What other maps do they talk about ws there are a lot of different these is Twitter. People send millions Twitter messages, or tweets, every v. One Twitter user, Eric Fischer, Markert on idea. Manager state collected from Twitter to show all the languages used in the tweets. He regrical some time to enlight the date But once he had it all, it cidn't take him long to create the mags. Now we have a collection of maps which show who uses which languages and where. The maps are fancinating and also Laborated speed of Europe, crethe other hand, is like a: and Arabic. The expets were similation. We can see that there are big to see that the seventh biggest mainly concentrated in big cities.

T/F/NM

T/F/NMA

T/F/NM

T/F/NM

There are also detailed maps of specifiofferent colours. English, in grey, is cities. A map of Econden in 2012 the main language. There's also some pink for Spanish. And there is a little languages 192.50 of all the breets were ournile for Esercit in Canada, The map in English, Next were Sponish, Turkish blocks of colour for languages such as English, French, Spanish, German the Philippines. At first, they couldn't and flation. But look closely and you see any good explanations for this can see there are a few areas where unusual result. They tooked into it and different languages co-exist, such as is Switzerland. But what you can see really Tagalog. They were English term are only tweets. Some countries are such as "hahahahaha", "dhhhhhhhh and almost immstrie because there are only "scieloloff. The professor in charge a few Twitter users there. And in some of the project said: "Tagalog wasn't countries, like Russia, the tweets are included in the final map but it seems 3 Read the text again. Are these statements True (T), False (F) or is the information Not Mentioned (NM)?

Eric Fischer doesn't send Twitter messages. 2 Eric Fischer just needed Twitter to make his maps.

3 The map of North America shows that one language is dominant there.

Fischer decided to make the map of Europe colourful. T/F/NM On the maps, it is difficult to see countries where eople don't use Twitter.

Twitter map of London showed that 8.5% of ets there are in Spanish.

is a very difficult language to learn.

sn't really the seventh biggest language

Think! Then compare ideas with What do you think a Twitter map or your town, city, region or country would show?

What do the underlined words in the text mean? Guess and then check in your dictionary.

6 SPEXISE What about you?

- 1 What do you think about social networks like Twitter and why?
- and which language(s) dio you use?

Reading tasks focus on stimulating topics using recognisable and relevant contexts.

The Critical thinking activity embedded in every Reading lesson quides students towards the use of higherorder thinking skills. It also gives students the opportunity to develop analytical skills and use them in an authentically communicative way.

Typical reading tasks include exam-style comprehension questions such as multiple-choice, True/ False or inserting sentences into a text.