

Work in pairs. Choose a country in the world and find out what kids study at primary school. Make a chart and report the information to your classmates.

