Yes, I can!

Hi! My name is Eva and I'm 10 years old.

I can ride a bike and I can play the guitar well. I've got a beautiful guitar. I can do judo! I love judo!

I can do lots of things, but I can't do everything. For example, I can't rollerblade at all. But I want to learn to do it. Then I can rollerblade in Sherwood Forest!

- Eva is nine / ten years old.
- She can / can't ride a bike.
- She has got / hasn't got a guitar.
- She enjoys / doesn't enjoy judo.
- She can / can't rollerblade.
- She wants to rollerblade / do judo in Sherwood Forest.

LET'S WRITE!

- Before you write, think of some ideas.
- Plan your writing.
- Write your draft.
- Check your draft for spelling, grammar and punctuation.
- Give your draft to a classmate to read. Listen to his/her ideas.
- Write your final text, then share it with your teacher and classmates.
